Activist & Union Leader John Campbell Endorsed by Distinguished Associations & Local Unions

DES MOINES, IA — May 31 — John Campbell has received a significant boost today with the endorsements from three prominent Des Moines associations. The endorsements from the Des Moines Police Burial Association, Des Moines Police Union, and Des Moines Police Gold Braid Organization signal a groundswell of support for John in the race for Iowa House District 34.

"These endorsements are a testament to our campaign's commitment to fostering positive relationships with all sectors of our community, including law enforcement," said John Campbell. "I am excited to have the support of these distinguished organizations and look forward to working collaboratively with them and our community to ensure the safety and prosperity of our communities."

The endorsements from these associations add momentum to John Campbell's campaign as the primary election approaches on June 4th. John continues to garner support from our diverse community of leaders, organizations, and residents who are eager for fresh perspectives and proactive solutions.

Union Endorsements:

United Steelworkers Local 310

North Central States Regional Council of Carpenters

Iowa Federation of Labor, AFL-CIO
