	Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 6	There are two classes of membership in the Iowa Bankers Association: Members and Associate Members. A bank becomes a member upon payment of dues. To become an Associate Member, an organization must be approved for membership by the rules of the association and payment of dues. Each member shall be divided into membership groups based on charter location. Each group shall elect a Group Chairman and a Group Secretary/Treasurer. The Board of Directors shall be composed of the elected and acting officers of the Corporation, the immediate past chairperson of the corporation, the Group Chairman from each group and at-large directors appointed by the Executive Committee with the approval of the Board. The President shall be elected by the Board of Directors. The President, by and with the consent, supervision and control of the Board of Directors may appoint (and discharge) one or more Vice Presidents, an Assistant Secretary or Secretaries, and a General Counsel, and such other employees as may be desirable and reasonably necessary to carry out the purposes of the corporation. The Board of Directors may fill any vacancies in office by appointment. There are three classes of voting members of the governing body and they are Board Officers, Board Directors and At-large Directors. The Board of Directors shall have the power to adopt and amend bylaws for the management and control of the affairs of the Corporation, including provision for dues or other payments. When the Board is not in session, management of said affairs shall be vested in the Executive Committee.
